SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. The Pearl River Area Guerrilla Suppression Commission was formed on 15 July 1950 by the Pearl River Special Commissioner's Office on instructions from the Kwangtung Provincial Government. YEN Shang-min, head of the Pearl River Special Commissioner's Office, was appointed chairman of the Commission, with LU Man (陸滿) and LO Feng-hsiang (駱鳳翔) as vice-chairmen. Other commission members appointed were TSENG Shao-feng (曾少芳), 1. HUANG Yu-chuan (黃友權), husband of FANG Chun-ying (方群英), LI Chieh-fu (李傑夫), HO Shan-chung (何擅中), and LIANG Chieh-te (梁戒德).
2. The mission of the Commission was to suppress bandits and anti-Communist forces in the various hsien of the Pearl River area.^c However, since its establishment nothing has been achieved, and the work of bringing guerrillas under Communist control has long been suspended. On 5 August YEN Shang-min was instructed by the Kwangtung Provincial Government to abolish the Guerrilla Suppression Commission by 10 August. LO Feng-hsiang, LU Man, and HO Shan-chung were placed under temporary custody pending an investigation.

1. Comment. TSENG was recently arrested for reactionary activities and sent to Hankow for questioning.

2. Comment. In early September YEN requested Canton military authorities for assistance in suppressing Nationalist guerrillas in Changshan.
